

Christchurch Women's Refuge

Pub Charity

Pub Charity was established in 1987 by the then-named Hotel Association of New Zealand (HANZ), now the Hospitality Organisation of New Zealand.

Pub Charity was the first organisation in New Zealand licensed to operate gaming machines and is one of the largest national trusts operating gaming machines, with venues spread across the country.

With more than 20 years history of raising funds for organisations New Zealand-wide, Pub Charity is a charitable trust committed to supporting Kiwi communities through funds raised in gaming machines in hotels and taverns.

Pub Charity and Christchurch Women's Refuge

Pub Charity has supported Christchurch Women's Refuge since 2006. The grants we have received from Pub Charity has provided consistent support, and has always been used primarily to provide frontline staff who work with clients, and also to provide some of the necessary services and facilities to support this work.

Christchurch Women's Refuge is very grateful to Pub Charity for its ongoing support of our work, and for the recognition of the importance of our service to our local community.
