Our Vision

A society free from the harms of family and sexual violence.

Our Mission

Support whānau and communities to live free from violence.

Our Guiding Principles

- As a paramountcy agency, Aviva will always put the needs and wellbeing of children and young people before other considerations, regardless of whether they are our primary client or not
- Overcoming family and sexual violence is possible for everyone
- Social injustice, including gender inequalities, is the principle cause of family and sexual violence and compromises the health, dignity, security, and potential of all New Zealanders
- The safest place for all New Zealanders should be our homes. In order to achieve this, families and communities should be empowered to enable homes to become violence free

- Services should be offered within the context of a family's healthy or potentially healthy relationships, which families should be empowered to strengthen
- People who have overcome the enduring effects of family and sexual violence are uniquely experienced to inspire and encourage those needing support to travel the same path
- The provision of effective services for children and women is enhanced by the provision of a range of effective services for men

Our Values:

Together, we strive to create safe homes for all individuals, whānau and communities, through the principals of aroha, pono and tika.

- Relationships

We accept all people and their whakapapa as they are; and where they are on their journey We honour the principles within Te Tiriti o Waitangi

- Integrity

We work to best practice, offering an ethical, transparent and client centred approach

- Social Justice

We engage in opportunities for courageous conversations through challenging times. We take a stand against social injustice
